No. 409

AMENDING THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE WITH RESPECT TO OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE SENATE

JUNE 30 (legislative day, JUNE 29), 1965.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. JORDAN of North Carolina, from the Committee on Rules and Administration, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany S. Res. 122]

The Committee on Rules and Administration, having under consideration an original resolution (S. Res. 122) amending the Standing Rules of the Senate with respect to outside activities of officers and employees of the Senate, report thereon and recommend that the resolution be agreed to by the Senate.

Senate Resolution 122 would amend the Standing Rules of the Senate by adding at the end thereof a new rule providing that no officer or employee of the Senate shall engage in any business, financial, or professional activity or employment for compensation or gain unless—

(1) Such activity or employment is not inconsistent with the conscientious performance of his official duties; and

(2) He has reported such activity or employment to the Member of the Senate charged with supervision of such officer or employee.

The committee is reporting this proposed new rule to implement one of the recommendations contained in its supplemental report to the Senate of June 30, 1965, on its inquiry into the financial, business, or other activities of present or former Members, officers, or employees of the Senate, with particular emphasis on the allegations raised in connection with the construction of the District of Columbia Stadium, and matters related thereto, pursuant to Senate Resolution 212 and Senate Resolution 367 of the 88th Congress.

AMENDING THE STANDING RULES OF THE SENATE WITH RESPECT TO OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE SENATE

Text as the Committee has, to be printed

Mr. JONES of North Carolina, from the Committee on Rules and Administration, submitted the following

REPORT

(To accompany S. Res. 122)

The Committee on Rules and Administration, having under consideration an original resolution (S. Res. 122) amending the Standing Rules of the Senate with respect to outside activities of officers and employees of the Senate, report thereon and recommend that the resolution be agreed to by the Senate.

Senate Resolution 122 would amend the Standing Rules of the Senate by adding at the end thereof a new rule providing that no officer or employee of the Senate shall engage in any business, financial, or professional activity or employment for compensation or gain unless—

- (1) Such activity or employment is not inconsistent with the conscientious performance of his official duties; and
- (2) He has reported such activity or employment to the Clerk of the Senate charged with supervision of such officer or employee.

The committee is reporting this proposed new rule to implement one of the recommendations contained in its supplemental report to the Senate of June 30, 1955 on its inquiry into the financial, business, or other activities of present or former Members, officers or employees of the Senate, with particular emphasis on the allegations raised in connection with the construction of the District of Columbia Stadium and matter related thereto, pursuant to Senate Resolution 212 and Senate Resolution 367 of the 82nd Congress.
